

TRADITIONAL WOUND CARE

Woven Cotton Gauze Sponges

Superior Absorbency. Consistent Quality. Reliable Veterinary Performance.

Overview

Manufactured from 100% woven cotton, Vero Animal Health Woven Cotton Gauze Sponges are designed to provide excellent fluid absorbency, softness, and consistent material construction.

Their highly absorbent woven structure makes them suitable for wound cleansing, blood and fluid absorption, surgical preparation, and general veterinary wound-care procedures.

Key features

- 100% woven cotton construction
